ASSALIAN AND ST.CROIX NAMED TO QSSF ALL-STAR TEAM

Women's Basketball Update: The Stingers ended their season last Friday losing a close game against Bishop's 56-51. All was not lost for the Stingers as two players were named to the QSSF All-star team. Third-year guard Carol Assalian (Montreal, Que.) ended her career in style by being named to the first All-star team. She finished the season eighth in league scoring while hitting a league high 10 three-pointers. Assalian is a former conference "Rookie of the Year" and was named an All-star three straight years.

Second-year forward Sharron St.Croix (Montreal, Que.) was named to the second All-star team after finishing fourth in conference scoring. St.Croix established herself as one of the best young players in the league this season.

Last Week: Sharron St. Croix (Montreal, Que.) had her second consecutive 19 point game. St. Croix averaged 13.3 points per game this past season placing her fourth in the league. Suzi Czelnai (Montreal, Que.) led the Stingers with 5 rebounds against McGill.

Several Stingers played their last league games for Concordia. Graduating players are: two-time conference All-Star Carol Assalian (Montreal, Que.), Co-Captain Anne-Marie Ouellette (Pierrefonds, Que.), second leading scorer Carole McIntyre (Pierrefonds, Que.) and Carmen Kasrelevitz (Montreal, Que.).
